

UPCOMING WORKSHOPS WITH ORBAN BELLAMY

Have you ever wanted or even longed for a connection with God that felt real, but everything others suggest, just doesn't seem to work? Maybe it is because it doesn't fit. Each of us is created in unique ways. That includes how we can connect with God and interact with Him most naturally. That is what we will be exploring in this two-part workshop.

NOVEMBER 8, 2025, ~ PATHWAYS TO GOD PART 1

10:00 AM - 5:00 PM ~ 265 FIR STREET, SHERWOOD PARK, AB

Uncover how your unique spiritual temperament can help you nurture a deeper, more meaningful connection with a living and loving God. Explore how others, through entirely different activities and practices, experience the same profound connection in their own way.

NOVEMBER 29, 2025, ~ PATHWAYS TO GOD PART 2

10:00 AM - 5:00 PM ~ 265 FIR STREET, SHERWOOD PARK, AB

Explore the rich diversity of Church traditions, each offering unique strengths and presenting its own challenges. Discover how these traditions connect deeply with the same God you worship in your own faith practice. You may even uncover new traditions that resonate with your spiritual temperament and inspire your journey.

The two workshops can be taken independently but they do work much better together. Register by contacting me directly at orban.connections@gmail.com or at <https://www.connectionswithgod.ca/contact>.

Registration is free but donations will be accepted to cover expenses.
